2023 STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS

--- THE LEGEND AWAKENS --- THE LEGEND AWAKENS --- THE LEGEND AWAKENS --- THE LEGEND AWAKENS ---

Andy Eide

1970-2023

On April 14, the hockey community across the Pacific Northwest experienced a tremendous loss with the passing of Andy Eide.

Andy was a beloved writer, broadcaster and hockey fan. His joyous signature laugh was a staple in the Kraken locker room.

Andy is best known for his work with Sound of Hockey and NHL.com, but his impact on the hockey community in the Pacific Northwest stretched far beyond just the Kraken. He was a force for growing the game, and well known in the junior hockey scene covering the Seattle Thunderbirds. He was an instrumental voice in the original NHL to Seattle group that campaigned to bring an expansion franchise to the Emerald City.

Andy was most recognized for his love and passion of the game but his career in hockey was just a small part of who he was as a person. He treated everyone with kindness. Players, staff and fellow media members alike naturally gravitated towards him. It was a joy to watch him cover our team and we are heartbroken that Andy will not be there to experience our first trip to the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Should you be looking for a way to honor Andy's memory, his family has asked that you consider making a donation to the Neurology Research Department at Harborview/UW. We send our condolences to Andy's family and friends.

The Seattle Kraken.

ACCESS: The Seattle Kraken Media Relations Department strive to make its players, coaches, management and other personnel available in a timely and responsible fashion to all accredited members of the media.

PRACTICE LOCATIONS:
Nearly all Kraken practices will be held at Kraken Community Iceplex (KCI), located at 10601 5th Ave NE, Seattle, WA 98125. The Kraken skate on the facility's Starbucks Rink, which is located at the far right side of the facility when looking straight ahead at the front lobby. The Kraken will make every attempt to provide a media workroom (Anchor Room) accessible via the staircase across from the bleachers. ALL media members wishing to cover the Kraken practices must either display a Kraken full season credential, or check in with the Kraken Media Relations Department upon arrival to receive a day pass. No media member without a pass will be granted access to the Kraken media availabilities without displaying proper accreditation.

If in Seattle, the Kraken will typically practice at 10:30 a.m. local time, unless it is a day after a game, in which they will practice at 11 a.m. All home practices will take place at Kraken Community Iceplex unless specified otherwise. The length of practice varies depending on the day and can last anywhere from 15 minutes to an hour.

Sharing line combinations, injury updates, photos and videos from practice is all permissible.

Head Coach Dave Hakstol and Kraken players will be made available to the media at the conclusion of practice in the team's locker room. Media members are encouraged to make their way to the locker room as soon as the first player leaves the ice. Any requests for one-on-one interviews should be made in as far advance as possible to ensure they can be fulfilled.

The Kraken PR staff will take requests for players, but the media is not limited to speaking with just those players while in the locker room. Every player in the locker room is available to be interviewed unless otherwise specified by the Kraken PR staff.

The Kraken will strive to make a work room available at home practices/morning skates. For the first few practices, the Anchor Room, inside of the Kraken Offices adjacent to 32 Bar & Grill will be open from approximately 9am – 1pm.

Enhanced security measures at the Starbucks Rink (Kraken primary practice rink) of KCI will include guests being subject to search that will include the use of electronic devices and metal detectors, pat-downs and inspection of all bags. Individuals attending upcoming Kraken practices, including working staff and media, should be aware of the following policies:

* All guests attending Kraken practices must enter through the Starbucks Rink vestibule.
* All guests are subject to metal detector screening, electronic wand screening and pat-down searches.
* All bags are subject to search.

These enhanced security measures are mandated by the National Hockey League and are in accordance with procedures already in place at NHL venues throughout the United States and Canada.

Visiting teams may skate at KCI or more likely at Climate Pledge Arena (CPA) depending on the availability of CPA.

INTERNET ACCESS:

CLIMATE PLEDGE ARENA:
Climate Pledge Arena – public

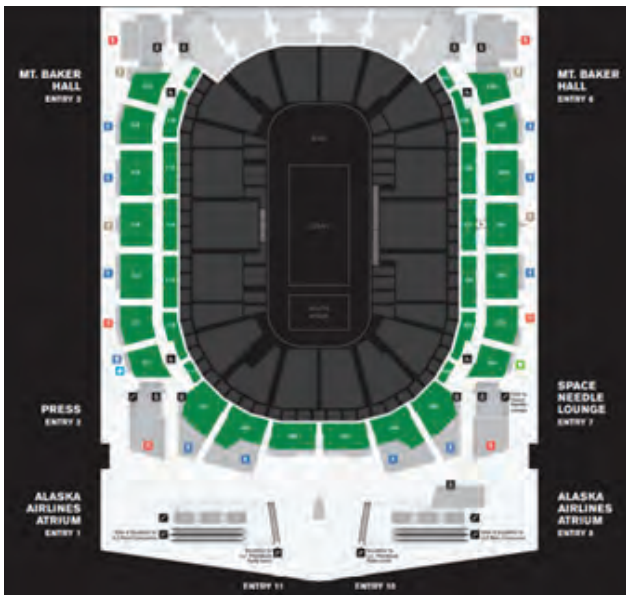
If you have any problems gaining access to the network, please let us know.

KRAKEN COMMUNITY ICEPLEX:
Use the "Kraken Community Iceplex" public wireless network, with no passcode needed.

MEDIA ENTRANCE:

The procedure for picking up single-game credentials and gaining access to Climate Pledge Arena for games or morning skates is to use the entrance at the southwest corner of the building (Press Entry 2), just north of the Alaska Airlines Atrium. The entry will have a backlit sign saying, "Press Entry." Please be prepared for and cooperate with the thorough inspection of all bags, cases and packages.

Climate Pledge Arena Media Entry opens 8am-8:30pm on gameday mornings (7pm start, all others scaled accordingly)



Please note, media/scouts attending the game WILL be allowed to carry their working laptop/recorder/all necessary items for their position in a non-clear bag for work purposes only.

CREDENTIALS:

DUE TO NEW, ENHANCED SECURITY MEASURES, ALL MEDIA MUST WEAR A VALID CREDENTIAL WHEN ATTENDING ANY KRAKEN PRACTICE, MORNING SKATE OR GAME AT KRAKEN COMMUNITY ICEPLEX OR CLIMATE PLEDGE ARENA*

Credentials will be delivered to the visiting team's media relations representative upon their arrival at Climate Pledge Arena or can be picked up directly by requesting from one of the Kraken media relations staffers. In the event your team is playing back-to-back games, we will leave your passes at the media entrance at the southwest corner of the building, just north of the Alaska Airlines Atrium.

Kraken season-long credentials WILL be valid for the first three rounds of the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Please note that while these will be valid, EVERY member of the media MUST RSVP for a spot for each specific Kraken game or your spot will be given to someone else. Because of the large amount of requests, everyone that requires a seat or would like to attend a game NEEDS to RSVP or we will not accommodate.

Media members who do not have a season credential can request a single-game credential by visiting the Kraken press site. Credentials will be approved based on need and availability in the press box. Media members will be notified if their credential request has been approved approximately 24 hours before the game.

If approved, credentials can be picked up the day of the game at the Climate Pledge Arena media entrance. The media entrance is located at the southwest corner of CPA, just north of Alaska Airlines Atrium, and is open from 8 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Please note that these times may change in the event that the game does not have a 7 p.m. start time. Media will not be permitted to enter the building after 7 p.m. unless specifically approved by a member of the Kraken PR staff.

Please reach out to Monica Firmani (MFirmani@seattlekraken.com) if you need a single-day credential for a practice or other Kraken event.

PARKING:

Due to extremely limited space, media/scout parking will not be available for Kraken games at Climate Pledge Arena.

GAME NOTES/STATISTICS/NEWS CLIPPINGS:

In an effort to reduce the amount of paper waste and to comply with NHL protocols, the Kraken Media Relations Department will not be printing hard copies of game notes, statistics or press clippings. All of these reports can be found electronically in PDF format on the Seattle Kraken Press Resources page.

MORNING SKATE MEDIA ACCESS:

The Kraken, on most mornings, will go on the ice between 10 and 10:30 a.m. and typically skate no longer than 15-20 minutes. If there are specific players you need to speak with, we ask that you arrive at the designated media availability area NO LATER than 10 a.m. so that we can ensure they are available in the event the team has an optional skate. Please note that the majority of Kraken morning skates may become optional as the season progresses. If you arrive after 10 a.m., we cannot guarantee that all players will still be in attendance. If the game is on the second day of a back-to-back OR a day game, the Kraken may not hold a morning skate and will instead hold media availability in the early afternoon/evening prior to that day's game.

PRE-GAME/IN-GAME TELEVISION INTERVIEW REQUESTS:

All requests for a Kraken pre-tape must be made before the conclusion of the morning skate so that we can ensure the availability of your guest. Your requests can be made in person or through Ben Guerrero at bguerrero@seattlekraken.com. We encourage all requests to be made prior to morning skate in the event of an optional skate. In addition, if a media member needs access to the visiting team bench for a pre-game interview, you need to coordinate access to that location with Ben Guerrero AT LEAST 2.5 hours before puck drop.

PRE-GAME MEAL:

A media meal will be served in the Press Dining Room beginning 2 ½ hours prior to game time. The Press Dining Room is located on the event level near the hallway to the Zamboni area (the yellow line below on map). Due to space limitations, we highly suggest media grab their food and eat at their assigned seats in the press bridge, or eat their meal between 5-6:30pm if possible. Refreshments are also available during intermissions as well as in the press bridge during games.

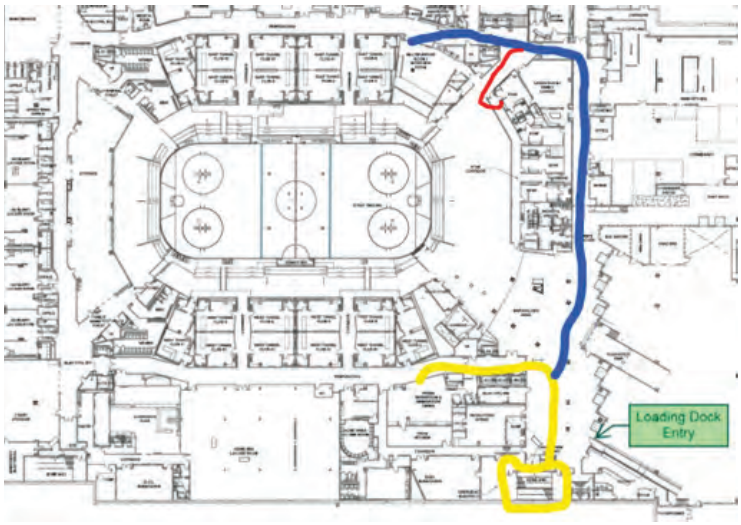
PREGAME MEDIA ACCESS:

Kraken players and coaches may be made available to credentialed members of the media between two and two-and-a-half hours before game time, at CPA. For example, pregame media access for a 7:00 p.m. home game would likely be at 4:30-5 p.m. Media members who wish to utilize this media access window MUST contact the Kraken Media Relations Department in advance with their interview requests and note that interviews depend on specific player schedules, etc.

POST-GAME MEDIA ACCESS:

NEW IN THE PLAYOFFS, the Kraken will hold availability in the locker room, followed by Head Coach Dave Hakstol and select players in the CPA media room (blue line on map below), located on the event level. Proceed down the south elevator to the event level. Upon exiting, walk down the hallway and turn left down the corridor towards the visitor's locker room. Follow that corridor to the media interview room.

To access the visitor's media room (red line below), proceed down the south elevator to the event level. Upon exiting, walk down the hallway and turn left towards the visitor's locker room, and then another left to the STAR dressing room 1. Visiting coaches/players of the game will also be available in the media interview room after locker room availability.



CELLPHONE POLICY:

Per NHL policy, there is absolutely no use of a cellphone to record video, place a call or take photographs inside the Kraken locker room. A cellphone used as an audio/interview recording device is allowed. If a member of the media violates this policy, you will be asked to leave the locker room immediately and access to credentials moving forward during the season will be reviewed.

LIVE HIT/TAPED HIT AFFILIATE POLICY:

Per the NHL's Broadcast Guidelines, NO broadcast can shoot with the bowl or playing surface visible within 30 minutes prior to the game time or until AFTER the rightsholder's FIRST commercial break following the conclusion of the game. This period is the exclusive window.

OFFICIALS ROOM:

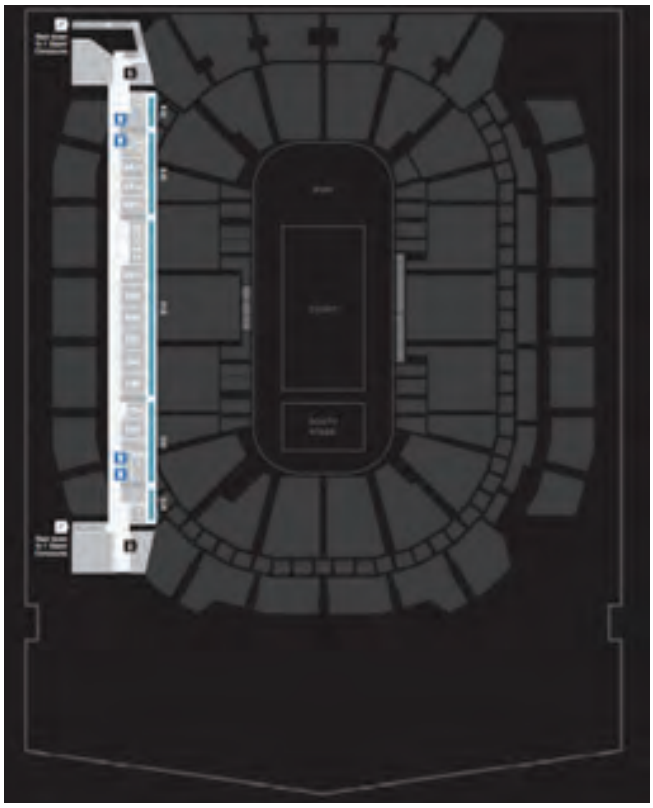
The officials' locker room is off-limits to the media. Should a comment or interpretation from the game's referee or NHL supervisor be needed, contact a member of the Kraken Media Relations Department and a pool reporter may be assigned.

PHOTOGRAPHERS:

Only those photographers on assignment from a recognized, approved media outlet will be allowed access to designated photography locations at rink level and in overhead positions. Priority will be given to local dailies, wire service photographers and local TV crews (for non-televised games) and one ice-level photography position will be reserved for Kraken team photographers. Additional photography positions are determined on a priority basis as determined by the Kraken Media Relations director. In cases of increased photographer (i.e. playoffs) attendance, positions will be assigned by the Kraken Media Relations Department. In all cases, photographers should check in with a media relations representative in the press room before game time. Because of very limited photography locations and NHL Images regulations, it is not possible to accommodate freelance photographers.

PRESS BRIDGE/BROADCAST LOCATIONS:

The press bridge and broadcast locations at CPA can be accessed by taking the south elevator/stairs. Take the elevator to the press bridge floor. Media seating charts will be posted in the press bridge.



POST-GAME INFORMATION:

Following the game, final copies of the "Game Summary" and "Event Summary" will be included in the Kraken postgame email. We will send you via e-mail our "Notes" document recapping key details/notes from the game, along with quotes from home and visiting team players and coaches. Requests to be added to this email list can be made in person or with Lindsey Brown (LBrown@seattlekrakenhockey.com).

POST-GAME MEDIA/PHOTOGRAPHY WORK ROOMS:
Following the conclusion of the games, the media/staff dining room will be open and available to working media to file, finish stories, etc. The media interview room will be reserved for working photographers as they will require a more secure place for gear, etc.

KRAKEN ROAD GAMES IN THE PLAYOFFS:
Two members of the Kraken PR staff will travel with the team when they are on the road during the playoffs. All media requests that pertain to the road trip can be made through Ben Guerrero.

Times and locations for Kraken road practices may vary depending on they day and arena availability. Media for practices, morning skates and postgame will be held in the visiting locker room of the home building. The traveling PR rep. will coordinate with traveling media for all requests. Head coach and select players may be made available in each building's media interview podium area postgame.
If you plan to cover a Kraken road game, please notify Ben Guerrero and he will include you with our team credential requests.

If you have any questions or need further assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Thanks and we look forward to working with you! Welcome to Seattle.

SECOND TIME AROUND

The Kraken concluded the 2022-23 regular season as one of the best, and most improved, second-year expansion teams in NHL history, dating back to the Original Six era (1967-68). No second-year expansion team had more wins or points than Seattle's 46 and 100, respectively. The team's 19-win and 40-point improvement both also set records for the greatest improvement from year one to year two for an expansion team.

Seattle's leap from 2021-22 to 2022-23 not only set records for an expansion franchise but was one of the best year-over-year improvements in the NHL from last season to this season. Only the New Jersey Devils made a bigger jump from 2021-22 to 2022-23, winning 25 more games and earning 49 more points. After finishing their inaugural season with the third-worst record in the NHL standings, the Kraken concluded the 2022-23 regular-season with the 12th-best record in the league, catapulting 18 spots up in the standings. Again, only New Jersey (plus-25) made a bigger leap in the overall standings from last year to this year.

STANLEY IN SEATTLE

Although 2023 marks the Kraken's first trip to the Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Stanley Cup has a long and storied history with the city of Seattle. The Seattle Metropolitans, who played in the Pacific Coach Hockey Association (PCHA) from 1915 to 1924, were the first-ever American-based team to win the Stanley Cup, doing so in 1916-17. Their Stanley Cup victory came in a five-game series against the Montreal Canadiens (then of the National Hockey Association) in the final year before the formation of the National Hockey League.

The Metropolitans would compete in the Stanley Cup Finals twice more, in 1919 and 1920. Seattle once again faced off against the Montreal Canadiens during the 1919 Finals, but the series was cut short due to the Spanish flu epidemic. Seattle and Montreal had each won two games, lost two and tied one, and the series was shut down before a winner could be decided. The 1919 season remains the only year in NHL history in which the Stanley Cup was not awarded due to a no-decision result. Seattle would return to the Cup Finals the following season, falling to the Ottawa Senators in a five game-series.

CUP RUNNETH OVER

The Kraken's roster boasts seven Stanley Cup winners – Andre Burakovsky, Vince Dunn, Yanni Gourde, Philipp Grubauer, Martin Jones, Justin Schultz and Jaden Schwartz. Burakovsky, Gourde and Schultz are the only three players on Seattle's roster to win multiple Cups. Burakovsky did so in 2018 with the Washington Capitals and in 2022 with the Colorado Avalanche. Schultz's and Gourde's wins both came in back-to-back seasons, Schultz in 2016 and 2017 and Gourde with Tampa Bay in 2020 and 2021.

According to NHL Stats, if Grubauer and Jones are the Kraken's goaltending tandem for Game 1, Seattle would become the first franchise in NHL history to make its postseason debut with multiple Stanley Cup-winning goaltenders in its lineup. The only clubs with one during their first-ever trip to the playoffs were the 2018 Golden Knights (Marc-Andre Fleury), 1981 Quebec Nordiques (Michel Plasse), 1968 Blues (Glenn Hall), 1968 Kings (Terry Sawchuk) and 1926 Montreal Maroons (Clint Benedict).

Seattle also has two other players on its roster that have reached the Stanley Cup Finals but have yet to win a Stanley Cup: Joonas Donskoi in 2016 with San Jose and Jamie Oleksiak in 2020 with Dallas. Adam Larsson was on New Jersey's roster during their 2012 playoff run. Although he did play in five postseason games, he did not dress for any of the six games New Jersey played against Los Angeles in the Stanley Cup Finals.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

In addition to the team increasing its win and point totals this season, the Kraken made several strides in offensive production in 2022-23. The team scored 70 more goals and average 0.92 goals per game more than they did in 2021-22, both of which were the best improvements in the league.

Ten players scored at least 10 goals for the Kraken this season: Jared McCann (40), Matty Beniers (24), Jaden Schwartz (21), Daniel Sprong (21), Oliver Bjorkstrand (20), Jordan Eberle (20), Brandon Tanev (16), Eeli Tolvanen (16), Ryan Donato (14), Vince Dunn (14), Andre Burakovsky (13) and Alex Wennberg (13). The Kraken's 13 10-goal scorers were tied with the Edmonton Oilers for the most in the NHL in 2022-23. Seattle's six 20-goal scorers were also tied for the most in the league along with the Dallas Stars, New Jersey Devils, Ottawa Senators, Pittsburgh Penguins and Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Kraken also finished the 2022-23 regular season with 18 different skaters recording at least 20 points after having 14 20-point players in their inaugural season. No team in the NHL had more 20-point players during the 2022-23 regular season than Seattle's 18.

ROOKIE OF BENIERS

Matty Beniers finished the 2022-23 campaign – his first full season in the NHL – leading all NHL rookies in goals (24, tied), points (57) and even-strength points (46). According to Natural Stat Trick, when Beniers was on the ice during five-on-five play, the Kraken outscored their opponents 63-41, outshot them 530-475 and had 496 scoring chances compared to their opponents' 473. His plus-22 on-ice goal differential topped all first-year players and only Buffalo's Owen Power (88) was on the ice for more five-on-five goals.

His play during the first half of the season earned him a berth to the 2023 NHL All-Star Game in Sunrise Florida, which he had to later withdraw from due to injury. His selection made him the first player from the 2021 NHL Draft class to be named an All Star, and he was one of three rookies this season (Edmonton's Stuart Skinner and Vegas' Logan Thompson) to be chosen to play in the NHL All-Star Game. At 20 years old, Beniers was the youngest player and first rookie to be named to an NHL All-Star team since Vancouver's Quinn Hughes, who was also 20 at the time, was selected to represent the Canucks at the 2020 NHL All-Star Game.

Despite high-level offensive production and consistent playing time, Beniers finished the 2022-23 regular season having been assessed just one penalty for two minutes, leading all skaters with two or fewer penalty minutes in points and games played. He became just the 13th player in NHL history, second in the last 32 years and first-ever rookie to total 57 or more points and have two or fewer penalty minutes is a season. He is also just the fourth player in NHL history to play in 80 or more games and have two or fewer penalty minutes.

PUMPING IRON

Selected by Seattle from Edmonton in the 2021 NHL Expansion Draft, Adam Larsson remains the only player to skate in every game in franchise history. 2022-23 was the third season in which he has played in every one of his team's games (this includes the 56-game 2020-21 season). At the conclusion of the 2022-23 regular season, Larsson had played in 268 consecutive regular-season games, which in the seventh-longest active Iron Man streak in the NHL and makes him one of 12 players to have an active Iron Man streak of at least 200 games. Among players that played in 82 games this season, Larsson's total time on ice (1938:28) and time on ice per game (23:38) both ranked fourth in the league.

Larsson was one of five players on Seattle's roster to play in all 82 Kraken games this season, joining Will Borgen, Jordan Eberle, Brandon Tanev and Alex Wennberg. It marked the first time in Borgen's, Tanev's and Wennberg's careers that they played in all 82 of their teams' games.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAY

With 46 points (21 goals, 25 assists) in 66 regular-season games this year, Daniel Sprong set an NHL record for goals, assists and points by a player who averaged less than 12 minutes of ice time per game since 1997-98 when the NHL began tracking time on ice. His 46 points doubled his total (23) from the 2021-22 season despite his 11:25 of ice time per game being the lowest of any full NHL season he has played.

Similarly, since the NHL began tracking time on ice in 1997-98, Morgan Geekie's 28 points are the fourth-most in NHL history among players averaging less than 11 minutes of ice time per night. He is the league's highest-scoring player to be averaging less than 11 minutes of ice time per game since Tie Domi had 29 points for the Toronto Maple Leafs in 2002-03, and he tied Stephane Matteau in 2000-01 for the most assists recorded in a season (19) while averaging less than 11 minutes of ice time per game.

ON THE DL

Defensemen Vince Dunn and Adam Larsson started 81 of the Kraken's 82 games this season on a pair together, with no two defensemen spending more five-on-five ice time together than Dunn and Larsson' 1369:22. The two were on the ice for 81 of the team's five-on-five goals, more than any other defensive pair in the league. Their plus-21 five-on-five goal differential ranked second to only New Jersey's Dougie Hamilton and Jonas Siegenthaler, who owned a plus-23 on-ice goal differential at five-on-five. Dunn and Larsson owned a 54.7 percent on-ice Corsi rating, which ranked ninth among defensive pairs that played at least 500 minutes together at five-on-five.

Since the start of the 2021-22 season, no two Kraken defensemen have played together more at five-on-five (1956:12), been on the ice for more five-on-five goals (103) or have a better five-on-five on-ice goal differential (plus-14).

Dave Hakstol – Head Coach

The 2022-23 season marked Dave Hakstol's second behind the bench for the Kraken after being named the team's first-ever head coach on June 24, 2021. He guided the Kraken to a 46-28-8 record in their second season, finishing the regular season with 100 points and securing the first Wild Card spot in the West. The team's 46 wins and 100 points are both the most by a Hakstol-coached team at the NHL level.

Hakstol's guidance saw the Kraken set several NHL records for an expansion team in its second season since the Original Six era (1967-68), including most points and most wins. The team's 40-point improvement from 2021-22 to 2022-23 was the greatest point improvement by an expansion team from its first to its second season and was also the second-best point improvement from 2021-22 to 2022-23 of any NHL team, trailing only the New Jersey Devils.

In addition to wins and points, Hakstol saw both individual players and the team as a whole make several significant statistical jumps from last season to this season. The team scored 76 more goals, allowed 32 fewer goals, averaged 0.92 more goals per game and 0.39 fewer goals against per games. The team's 27.0 shots against per game was the second-best mark during the 2022-23 regular season.
